

Come sail the winds of Paradise

The Hawaii Youth Sailing Assn. in conjunction with Kaneohe Yacht Club announces the 3rd annual IMU regatta, November 26th and 27th to be held at the University of Hawaii Sailing Center, Honolulu, HI.

This regatta offers excellent sailing conditions in FJ's and 420's, BBQ lunch, and topped off with an authentic Hawaiian luau. There is no better way to celebrate the Thanksgiving holiday than with sunshine, trade winds and warm water. When not racing, you may enjoy the many beaches, sights and activities that Hawaii is famous for.

In 2010, 12 teams competed in 22 races over the 2 days consisting of high schools from the West Coast, Pacific North West and Hawaii. Trade winds averaged 12-15 knots with excellent competition. This venue offers excellent viewing for spectators as well.

The IMU regatta is open to all ISSA member high schools around the country. For more information please contact:
